

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Upper School Quest Teacher/Math Teacher

Dwight School has a position available for a self-directed and dedicated educator for the Quest Department.

Ideal Candidate must meet the following:

Qualifications:

- Provide one-on-one academic and organizational support to struggling learners.
- Must provide high-level support in one or more of the traditional academic disciplines (English, history, math, chemistry or biology)
- Actively engage with the classroom teachers, maintaining regular contact with parents about student progress in all areas
- Required to participate in all staff meetings and an in-house professional development program
- Must be a strong writer and computer literate
- Formal training in Special Education preferred, but not required
- Bachelor's Degree in Secondary Mathematics Education, Mathematics or a related field required
- Master's Degree in Secondary Mathematics Education, Mathematics or a related field recommended
- At least two years prior teaching experience in a classroom setting
- Experience with thoughtful technology integration in a Mathematics class
- Experience with the International Baccalaureate Middle Years Program preferred, but not required

Interested candidates should submit their most recent resume via e-mail to Head of Quest, Josh Kigel at jkigel@dwight.edu, and Head of Mathematics, Nicole Hamilton at nhamilton@dwight.edu, with the heading "Upper School Math/Quest Teacher."

Dwight School's goal is to achieve and maintain equal employment opportunities. It is also the policy of Dwight School to maintain a work environment free from discrimination based on race, color, religious creed, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, veteran/military status, marital status or other status protected by federal or state law, with regards to any term or condition of employment.